Live Stock Exchange Complains to L.

C. C. on Railrond Privilege.

Democrats in Georgia. Macon, Sept. 26.—Nomination of candidates for the three new places on the state court of appeals, created by recent legislative action was the chief business before the Democratic state convention, assembled here to-day to ratify the result of the state-wide primary of Sept. 12. Hugh M. Dorsey, of Atlanta received a clear majority over the other three candidates for the gubernatorial nomination and under convention rules, ratification of his nomination is merely a formality.

Washington. Sept. 26.—The Nation-all Live Stock exchange, with head-day to the interstate commerce communication that railroad privileges as to feeding and watering stock given at the designated stopping places on the lines of the Chicago. Burlington & Quincy. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and other roads are unjust and discriminatory against intermediate places.

The exchange contends that the privileges are available only to a small portion of the live stock traffic.
